

“...the greatest of these is love.”

On the most perfect summer day Ted Casler and Katie Roussel became a family. In preparation friends and relatives threw showers with gifts ranging from silky gowns to garden tools. The final celebration before the wedding took place at the groom's mother's home where mai tais and tiki torches signaled the beginning of something great.

Ted and Katie were married August 23rd, 2003 in a small chapel familiar to Ted's youth. The fairytale continued into the evening on the grounds of a castle-like estate. As the couple said their good-byes under a rain of lavender buds they began their honeymoon which would lead them to the Hawaiian islands. You are invited to enjoy the most important moments of their lives and watch their story unfold.
